ARTILLERY DUEL IS BEING FOUGHT

Heavy Guns Are In Use By Opposing Forces Before Ladysmith.

SEIGE OF THE CITY

GEN. WHITE GIVES REASON FOR BRITISH DEFEAT.

Failure of the Movement and Capture of the British Forces On the Left Wing Was Due to the Stampede of the Mules Drawing the Ammunition—Boers Treat the Red Coats Wounded Very Humanely—The Prisoners Taken Are Sent to Pretoria.

Ladysmith, Nov. 1.—Special Cablegram to the Gazette]—A heavy artillery duel was fought here all day yesterday between the Boers and the British. It is still continuing. The British are using fifty pound naval guns and the Boers are using forty pounders. The city is closely beseiged.

Boer Loss Must be Heavy

London, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—A Ladysmith dispatch describes the garrison as being cheerful and hopeful. The guns from the cruiser Powerful did effective work Tuesday in replying to the Boer artillery which was bombarding the town. The naval guns silenced several Boer batteries, but others were brought up. It is said the Boer loss must be very heavy.

Knock Out a Boer Forty Pounder

London, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—A Cape Town dispatch says:

"In the artillery duel at Ladysmith yesterday the naval contingent knocked a Boer forty pounder off its platform, and silenced the Boer guns on Hepworth Hill, forcing the Boers to abandon their position.

WHITE GIVES REASONS OF DEFEAT

Stampeding of Mules With Ammunition Cause of Boer Victory

London, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—A dispatch has finally been received from Gen. White giving the details of the capture of his left wing. He wires as follows:

"The lost detachment under Col, Carleton started on Sunday night to seize Nicholson Nek, thus turning the enemy's right. Carleton got within two miles of Nicholson unmolested, when suddenly boulders were rolled from the hills and a few rifle shots were fired.

This stampeded the mules drawing the ammunition, and they disappeared in the direction of the enemy with practically all the gun equipments. Carleton then intrenched his forces on a neighboring hill.

Monday morning the Boers attacked the British position in full force. Their fire was searching, and two companies of the Gloucestershire regiment were obliged to retire from their advanced position. The enemy then pressed in at close range, and our losses were numerous.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon our immunition was practically exhausted. When the Boers stormed our position our survivors were captured.

The enemy treated our wounded with great humanity. General Joubert dispatched a letter, offering me safe conduct for doctors and ambulances to remove our wounded. Those have been sent. I understand the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria.

The failure of the column was due to the stampeding of the mules. Our security at Ladysmith is unaffected."

General O'Beirne is Elated Over Boers' Success in Africa

Washington, Nov. 1—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—General James O'Beirne, the Transvaal representative, is greatly elated over the British setback at Ladysmith. The general hopes that the Boer victory will "open the eyes of the world to the Boers' determination to stand for liberty," and perhaps point the way to McKinley offering his services as mediator.

Sinks with 200 Soldiers.

Colon, Colombia, Nov. 1.—A report has reached here that on Oct. 24 two armed government steamers destroyed seven insurgent vessels, one of the latter sinking with, it is rumored, 200 soldiers.

It is now believed that the revolution is ending.

Cripple Creek Gold Output.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 1.—The October Cripple Creek gold output aggregated $2,003,600 from 28,300 tons of ore treated. The camp's total output to date exceeds $63,000,000.

BIG STRIKE ON IN CHICAGO

General Shut Down Expected in All the Piano Manufacturing Concerns

Chicago, Nov. 1—A strike was declared at Story & Clark's piano factory at Sixteenth and Canal streets yesterday afternoon. At 1 o'clock the 200 employes walked out when the company officials refused to concede the demand of the union for a nine-hour day. It is probable that the strike will spread to other big factories, and a general shut down is predicted, which will effect between 3,500 and 4,000 piano workers. It is said that all of the big manufacturers are ready lo stand together to the end.

MAY LEAD DEWEY INTO POLITICS

MARRIAGE MAY EFFECT PRESIDENTIAL SITUATION.

His Candidacy Possible—Mrs. Hazen Thought to Have Ambition In the Direction of the White House—He Is Counted As a Democrat.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1—Aside from the purely social features of the affair, with which every one is delighted, politicians of the "practical end" variety have been busily engaged today studying the possible political influence of Admiral Dewey's engagement to Mrs. Hazen. There seems to be a concensus of opinion to the effect that the marriage may at least have a tendency towards projecting the admiral into politics. The bride-to-be is a woman of mature years, but youthful and ambitious, and the politicians are inclined to believe her influence would be cast, for family reasons at least, toward inducing the admiral to become a candidate for the presidency.

The politicians believe Dewey could stampede the democratic convention, even as against Bryan, and they figure out that, as the future Mrs. Dewey is the sister of John R. McLean, a consistent democrat, the admiral must be the candidate of that party or none at all.

There was also an expression of opinion that to a certain degree the engagement of Admiral Dewey to. Mrs. Hazen just at this time would have a tendency to help McLean in Ohio by associating his name with the Manila commander, whose brother-in-law he is about to become. For this reason, it is asserted, some country people may vote for McLean out of compliment for the admiral, and there are not wanting republican leaders who declare that the engagement was announced at this particular time for the possible effect it might have on the Ohio campaign.

The president and the leaders of the administration do not permit politics to interfere with purely social relations, but their subordinates in the departments persist in looking at the political side of the engagement, and are almost unanimous in believing that Mrs. Dewey will desire to have her husband run for the presidency, more particularly if it should happen that her brother is chosen governor of Ohio.

IT MAY NOT BE TRUE

Report That a British Transport With 1450 Men Has Been Lost at Sea.

London, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—The exchange telegraph company says it is rumored that a British transport bound for Cape Town is sunk. The report is unconfirmed. The vessel is supposed to be the Nubia with fourteen hundred and fifty men on board. She sailed Oct. 21. The owners discredit the report.

WELSH COLLIERS OUT

Twenty-five Thousand of Them on a Strike—May Interfere With War in Africa.

Cardiff, Wales, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Twenty-five thousand Welsh colliers are out on a strike. This may interfere with the government sending coal for army transports.

Lost Girl Brought Home.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Nov. 1—Johanna Gursky, the Crystal Falls girl who was last in the woods was brought home early this morning by a sheriff from a homestead near Atkinson. She was seventeen days in the woods without food, living on wintergreen berries during the time.

Fatal Flames in Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—Fire which broke out at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Webster house, a small hotel on St. James street, caused the death of three persons and the probably fatal injury of a fourth, while half a dozen others sustained minor injuries. The dead are:

BENBOW, JOHN, Ottawa,

M'COON, JANE, employe of the hotel.

WILSON, JOSEPH E., bailiff, Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Capt. J. K. Rowald of Montreal, a broker, jumped from a window and fractured his skull and will probably die. The property loss is placed at $40,000, with an insurance of $19,000.

KENTUCKY NERVES ALL IN TENSION

INDICATIONS THAT ELECTION WILL CAUSE BLOODSHED.

Bitter Personalities of the Campaign May Culminate In Serious Consequences When the Voting Time Comes—Goebel and Duke Exchange Bitter Words.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 1—A resident of Owen county was arrested by the police this morning near the corner of Sixth and Main streets, where he was vociferously shouting for Goebel. He had a loaded revolver in his pocket and a dirk knife was up his sleeve, and a billy in his right. In addition he had a well developed case of delerium tremens.

"Whiskey is all right and pistols and knives are all right" remarked the lieutenants of the police who had him in charge, "but when a man puts the whiskey on the inside of him and hangs the pistols and the knives on the outside there is apt to be trouble especially if he mixes in politics in Kentucky just at this time. I wish the election was over. If one gun is fired it is likely to be answered by fifty."

It is now a week until election day and every nerve in Kentucky is in tension. The hope of conservative men is that 'the first shot' will not be fired. The pessimists openly predict there will be bloodshed in Kentucky before the votes are counted.

To a stranger, with Kentucky traditions in his mind, it is difficult to see how trouble is to be avoided. The personal remarks passed on the stump by candidates and leading speakers would certainly provoke instant retaliation in Illinois, Iowa or Wisconsin, and the average Kentuckian is not regarded as less quick to resent an insult than is the Northerner. Goebel has been the worst offender in this respect. Up to date, however, he has only been called to account once, and that was by General Basil Duke, whom he accused of being the "corruptionists" for the Louisville and Nashville railway.

General Duke, in denying that he had ever used money in dealing with the members of the legislature, retorted that had he been buying the would have regarded Senator Goebel as the first in the market. After calling the democratic candidate a slanderer and and an assassin, he concluded with a hint that he was willing to back up his words with deeds.

So far Goebel has not answered this, and it is not thought he will. Should the two meet there might be trouble, but this is improbable. General Duke has a too well established reputation for courage to need to go out looking for his man; and Gobel already has killed one man and is not expected to seek another encounter.

CALLED ON M'KINLEY

Admiral Dewey and Philippine Commission Discuss the War With the President.

Washington, Nov. 1—(Special Telegram to The Gazette)—President Schurman of the Philippine commission, accompanied by Admiral Dewey, Mr. Denby and Mr. Worcester, called on the president this morning and had a long talk regarding the Philippine question. The president informed the committee on what points he desired information at an early date. The commission promised to make a preliminary report, which will be presented probably this week. It will cover the points desired and will be made public. The members of the commission refused to discuss the report in advance.

Iowans Soon to Return East.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1.—Today the members of the Fifty-first Iowa volunteers put off the army blue which they have worn for more than a year and a half, and, as private citizens, will start on their return to their eastern homes tomorrow. Iowa has broken the record for mustering out. The regiment arrived on Sunday, Oct. 22, and on Nov. 1 went out of the service. Other regiments have required from three to four weeks to complete the details of mustering out. The regiment will leave for home Thursday evening.

No Sheet-Steel Mill Combine.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 1.—Options on all sheet-steel mills in the country, including the Midland steel works of this city, expired at midnight last night without the proposed trust being formed. It is said the options will be renewed and extended at once until sufficient time for the formation of the combine. The reason for the failure of the movement at this time could not be learned from gas belt manufacturers.

Scofield Against Expansion.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—Gov. Scofield has issued a long open letter in which he declared that it was neither expedient nor just to annex the Philippine islands. He declared that a free discussion of the question is in no sense disloyalty to the president or to the republican party. He fears that the matter may not be left to the people and that the nation will undertake a task that it has not the capacity to perform.

HOBART TO RETIRE END OF HIS CAREER

HIS HEALTH WILL NOT STAND WORK OF PUBLIC LIFE.

The Vice-President's Family Issues a Statement—Will Hold Even Should the Patient Recover—Experiences a Favorable Day—Doctor's Hope For Early Recovery.

Paterson, Nov. 1.—(Special Telegram to The Gazette)—Vice President Hobart's condition shows little change. This morning the physicians in their ten o'clock bulletin said: "Mr. Hobart passed a comfortable night, he slept fairly well, and took a little nourishment this morning.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 1—Vice President Garret A. Hobart, slowly dying, has formally withdrawn from public life. In a statement issued by the family today, his abdication is made absolute and even should death not end his life at once, his public career is at an end. The family announced that a fatal change might ensue at any moment, or his present condition might be indefinitely prolonged.

Mr. Hobart was considerably improved last night. He sat up and conversed with the members of his family and enjoyed several hours of natural sleep. Dr. Wm. E. Newton, the family physician, issued several bulletins this morning. The statement given out was as follows:

"The vice president has had a very comfortable night; he has taken an interest in affairs; has been very cheerful, and has had natural sleep. He himself says it is one of the best nights he has had in a week."

STORM SIGNALS UP ON ATLANTIC COAST

SHIP THREATENED BY A FIERCE GALE NOW RAGING.

The Sea Is Running High and Great Damage Has Been Done Outside of New York Bay—Storm Reaches As Far South As Jamaica.

New York, Nov. 1—Storm signals are up all along the Atlantic coast. The sea is running high and considerable damage has been caused to shipping outside the bay. During the day the wind was blowing at a velocity of forty miles an hour and more. The warships New York and Massachussetts which were outside testing the wireless telegraphy, came back to port. One vessel was reported ashore at Galilee, N. J. All day the rain fell in torrents.

The storm kept the Shamrock and the Erin from starting home as planned. Sir Thomas went down to say good bye, and it was then settled with Capt. Matthews of the Erin that the two yachts would not leave until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Wrecked Off New Jersey.

Galilee, N. J. Nov. 1—A large barge deeply laden is coming ashore. The high tide and sea have carried the vessel to within 250 yards of the rocks. As the boat came closer the forms of four or five men on board could be discerned.

Nassau, New Providence, Nov. 1.—The American schooner Celina, Capt. Murray of Bath, Me., from Philadelphia Oct. 9, for Galveston, is ashore off Abaco and signaling for assistance, but is not approachable.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 1—The storm, which ceased Sunday after raging for four days, having culminated in hurricane force at several points on Saturday, has, according to reports over the restored telegraph lines, wrought considerable destruction among the bananas, coffee, orange and other plantations.

CASH SURPLUS GROWS

Washington, Nov. 1—October ended with a surplus of government receipts over expenditures amounting to $3,521,588 for the month and $7,225,390 for the four months of the fiscal year which have passed.

This favorable showing is made notwithstanding the fact that anticipated interest payments to the amount of more than $4,000,000 have been made during the month. It is due to the fact that receipts both from customs and from internal revenue are running far ahead of the most sanguine calculations made at the beginning of the fiscal year.

If receipts from these sources continue for the remainder of the year at the same rate as for the first four months the customs revenues will be $20,000,000 in excess of Secretary Gage's estimate, and the internal revenue will be $24,000,000 larger than he estimated. His estimate of receipts from miscellaneous sources will also be exceeded by some millions.

The total receipts for October this year amounted to $47,533,588, against $39,631,051 for the same month last year. The expenditures this year amount to $44,012,000 against $53,903,000 last year.

FIRST SNOW OF THE SEASON

Arrived Today Bringing Cold Weather with It.

It snowed in Janesville this morning. Although the white flakes failed to fall in such large quantities as to block railroad trains, the storm nevertheless brought with it weather of a chilly nature. The thermometer dropped several degrees during the day. Clothing and shoe merchants are pleased; so are the coal and wood dealers. Contractor Watson is rushing the Milwaukee street pavement work, as he fears the coming of snow.

ACUTE INTEREST AT WASHINGTON

FEDERAL OFFICIALS ANXIOUS ABOUT ELECTIONS.

President McKinley Feels Certain That Ohio Will Go Republican—All the Democrats Expect to Do Next Tuesday Is to Carry Nebraska and Maryland.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1—The acute interest which is manifested by officials of the government here in the coming elections, particularly in Ohio, is entirely out of proportion to the apparent importance of the events. The greatest uncertainty and anxiety is shown by men of each party. Notwithstanding the uneasiness which is felt by republicans over the outcome in Ohio, the belief is not general among democrats that there is any great probability of McLean being elected governor.

The dissatisfaction among the democrats in Ohio with their candidate, and the presence in the field of Jones, the independent candidate, who is expected to draw his vote largely from the democrats, are both considered favorable to the republicans. The principal fear of the republicans is that those members of their party who do not like Hanna will take the occassion to "turn him down."

President McKinley appears to be awake to the fact that the defeat of the republican party in his state would be equivalent to a repudiation of the present administration, and that his own fate in a large measure depends upon the election. It is recognized, therefore, that the republicans who fail to vote the republican ticket will, through their desire for revenge on Hanna, place themselves in a position to be responsible for a slap at the administration. The president is understood to venture everything on the result of the Ohio election, and it is believed that by making so, depend upon it the danger will be materially reduced.

It is understood that all the democrats have any serious expectation of accomplishing at next Tuesday's elections is to hold Nebraska for Bryan and recapture Maryland, besides reducing the republican plurality in Ohio. Well informed democrats do not expect to elect Goebel in Kentucky. A failure by the democrats in both Kentucky and Maryland would, however, give them grave fears for the future.

BOYS MUSTERED OUT

Fifty First Iowa Regiment Released at 'Frisco Starts for Home Today.

San Francisco, Nov. 1—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—The Fifty-First Iowa was mustered out this morning, and started for home this afternoon.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Threatening tonight and Thursday, continued cool.

Trouble Brewing in [illegible]

Moscow, Nov. 1.—According to a stock-exchange dispatch from Lahore the British authorities in northern India are greatly disquieted by the situation among the natives. The fanatical mullah, Povind, is preaching rebellion to his coreligionists, and it has been deemed necessary to expedite the dispatch of troops.

Victory for the Bankers.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Bankers win a decided victory over express companies by a ruling of Commissioner Wilson of the internal revenue bureau, made Tuesday, in which he holds that an express company which buys or sells foreign money exchange is subject to the special tax of $50 a year as a broker for each office at which it transacts such business.

Piling Up Cash Surplus.

Washington, Nov. 1.—October ends with a surplus of government receipts over expenditures amounting to $3,521,588 for the month and $7,225,390 for the four months of the fiscal year which have passed.

More Regiments Sail Soon.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1.—There will be no delay in getting the three regiments now at the Presidio away for the Philippines. They have all been assigned to transports, and the last of them will sail on Nov. 6, if nothing happens to change the programme.

AGUINALDO IS IN RAPID RETREAT

IS FORCING THE WAR

REPORTED THAT AGUINALDO MOVED HIS CAPITAL.

Much of the Enemy's Country Has Fallen Into the Hands of the American Troops—The Plan Is to Hem the Rebels In a Pocket and then Bag Them—Gen. Young Makes Rapid Strides Through the Interior Sweeping All Before Him.

Manila, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Gen. Lawton is making rapid strides in the campaign against Tarlac where Aguinaldo and the main body of the insurgents have been located for some time.

Aliaga, Talvera and Caban have been captured by the forces under Captains Hayes and Parker.

The last two towns are above Tarlac, indicating that it is General Lawton's intention to cut off rebel escape to the north.

It is already reported that Aguinaldo has escaped by removing the capital to Bayambang, thirty miles from Tarlac.

Parker and Hayes captured two brass cannon, seven hundred Hotchkiss shells, forty torpedoes, forty-five thousand rounds of cartridges, also a large quantity of food supplies.

AGUINALDO IS IN RETREAT

Leaves American Troops in Possession of Much Country

Manila, Nov. 1.—Information just received says the main insurgent army in front of MacArthur is retreating to the northeast, leaving only a small force to harass MacArthur's troops. Aguinaldo is said to have established a new capital at Bayongong, and is living in the near-by town of Dials, in the great tobacco valley northeast, over the mountains.

If this is true, we shall soon practically control the entirt valley north of Manila, but a new campaign will be necessary to force Aguinaldo to surrender his new revenue-producing territory.

PLAN IS TO HEM IN AGUINALDO.

Gen. Young's Advance Pushing Rapidly North and East.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Cable advices to the war department today indicate that Gen. Young's column is steadily continuing its advance, in spite of unfavorable conditions. A cablegram from Gen. Otis says:

"Young is advancing north and east of Cabanatuan; will occupy Talavera and probably Aliaga today; objective San Jose and Carranglan; wet season has rendered roads in that section impracticable for wagon transportation and progress is difficult."

A message from Gen. Miller at Manila states that William P. Chamberlain, the messenger who was wounded in the fight in which Capt. Guy Howard was killed, is doing well.

Gen. Young's advance to the north and east of San Isidro as far as Cabanatuan, sixteen miles from Lawton's base, and the official advices from Gen. Otis that Young's objective points are San Jose and Caranglan, sixty-three miles northeast of San Isidro, indicate to the war department officials that this is a movement to prevent the insurgents from retreating to the northeast and compelling them to fight or surrender before they can get out of the territory cut by the Dagupan railroad.

Gen. Lawton will follow Young's advance, probably keeping more to the west and nearer the railroad, and Gen. MacArthur will move north along the railroad to Tarlac at the proper time to give battle to the insurgents there and follow them north to Dagupan. There are one or two gunboats already in Lingayan bay, off Dagupan, and it is said that Gen. Otis will send another body of troops around to land at Lingayan or Dagupan, so as to completely hem in Aguinaldo.

It is expected that this movement will end the insurrection, so far as Aguinaldo is concerned, by his capture or surrender.

The war department expects to hear of rapid developments now, and that the American forces will not only have possession of the railroad throughout its entire length from Manila to Dagupan—a distance of 146 miles—within two weeks, but that they will also convince Aguinaldo that his insurrection is at an end.

Death of Capt. French.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Gen. Otis notified the war department that Capt. Charles French, who was wounded at Florida Blanca, had died of shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg. Capt. French went to Manila with the First Montana volunteers.

To a stranger, with Kentucky traditions in his mind, it is difficult to see how trouble is to be avoided. The personal remarks passed on the stump by candidates and leading speakers would certainly provoke instant retaliation in Illinois, Iowa or Wisconsin, and the average Kentuckian is not regarded as less quick to resent an insult than is the Northerner. Goebel has been the worst offender in this respect. Up to date, however, he has only been called to account once, and that was by General Basil Duke, whom he accused of being the "corruptionists" for the Louisville and Nashville railway.

General Duke, in denying that he had ever used money in dealing with the members of the legislature, retorted that had he been buying the would have regarded Senator Goebel as the first in the market. After calling the democratic candidate a slanderer and and an assassin, he concluded with a hint that he was willing to back up his words with deeds.

So far Goebel has not answered this, and it is not thought he will. Should the two meet there might be trouble, but this is improbable. General Duke has a too well established reputation for courage to need to go out looking for his man; and Gobel already has killed one man and is not expected to seek another encounter.

CALLED ON M'KINLEY

Admiral Dewey and Philippine Commission Discuss the War With the President.

Washington, Nov. 1—(Special Telegram to The Gazette)—President Schurman of the Philippine commission, accompanied by Admiral Dewey, Mr. Denby and Mr. Worcester, called on the president this morning and had a long talk regarding the Philippine question. The president informed the committee on what points he desired information at an early date. The commission promised to make a preliminary report, which will be presented probably this week. It will cover the points desired and will be made public. The members of the commission refused to discuss the report in advance.

Iowans Soon to Return East.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1.—Today the members of the Fifty-first Iowa volunteers put off the army blue which they have worn for more than a year and a half, and, as private citizens, will start on their return to their eastern homes tomorrow. Iowa has broken the record for mustering out. The regiment arrived on Sunday, Oct. 22, and on Nov. 1 went out of the service. Other regiments have required from three to four weeks to complete the details of mustering out. The regiment will leave for home Thursday evening.

No Sheet-Steel Mill Combine.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 1.—Options on all sheet-steel mills in the country, including the Midland steel works of this city, expired at midnight last night without the proposed trust being formed. It is said the options will be renewed and extended at once until sufficient time for the formation of the combine. The reason for the failure of the movement at this time could not be learned from gas belt manufacturers.

Scofield Against Expansion.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—Gov. Scofield has issued a long oper letter in which he declared that it was neither expedient nor just to annex the Philippine islands. He declared that a free discussion of the question is in no sense disloyalty to the president or to the republican party. He fears that the matter may not be left to the people and that the nation will undertake a task that it has not the capacity to perform.

HOBART TO RETIRE END OF HIS CAREER

The Vice-President's Family Issues a Statement—Will Hold Even Should the Patient Recover—Experiences a Favorable Day—Doctor's Hope For Early Recovery.

Paterson, Nov. 1.—(Special Telegram to The Gazette)—Vice President Hobart's condition shows little change. This morning the physicians in their ten o'clock bulletin said: "Mr. Hobart passed a comfortable night, he slept fairly well, and took a little nourishment this morning.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 1—Vice President Garret A. Hobart, slowly dying, has formally withdrawn from public life. In a statement issued by the family today, his abdication is made absolute and even should death not end his life at once, his public career is at an end. The family announced that a fatal change might ensue at any moment, or his present condition might be indefinitely prolonged.

Mr. Hobart was considerably improved last night. He sat up and conversed with the members of his family and enjoyed several hours of natural sleep. Dr. Wm. E. Newton, the family physician, issued several bulletins this morning. The statement given out was as follows:

"The vice president has had a very comfortable night; he has taken an interest in affairs; has been very cheerful, and has had natural sleep. He himself says it is one of the best nights he has had in a week."

STORM SIGNALS UP ON ATLANTIC COAST

The Sea Is Running High and Great Damage Has Been Done Outside of New York Bay—Storm Reaches As Far South As Jamaica.

New York, Nov. 1—Storm signals are up all along the Atlantic coast. The sea is running high and considerable damage has been caused to shipping outside the bay. During the day the wind was blowing at a velocity of forty miles an hour and more. The warships New York and Massachussetts which were outside testing the wireless telegraphy, came back to port. One vessel was reported ashore at Galilee, N. J. All day the rain fell in torrents.

The storm kept the Shamrock and the Erin from starting home as planned. Sir Thomas went down to say good bye, and it was then settled with Capt. Matthews of the Erin that the two yachts would not leave until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Wrecked Off New Jersey.

Galilee, N. J. Nov. 1—A large barge deeply laden is coming ashore. The high tide and sea have carried the vessel to within 250 yards of the rocks. As the boat came closer the forms of four or five men on board could be discerned.

Nassau, New Providence, Nov. 1.—The American schooner Celina, Capt. Murray of Bath, Me., from Philadelphia Oct. 9, for Galveston, is ashore off Abaco and signaling for assistance, but is not approachable.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 1—The storm, which ceased Sunday after raging for four days, having culminated in hurricane force at several points on Saturday, has, according to reports over the restored telegraph lines, wrought considerable destruction among the banana, coffee, orange and other plantations.

CASH SURPLUS GROWS

Washington, Nov. 1—October ended with a surplus of government receipts over expenditures amounting to $3,521,588 for the month and $7,225,390 for the four months of the fiscal year which have passed.

This favorable showing is made notwithstanding the fact that anticipated interest payments to the amount of more than $4,000,000 have been made during the month. It is due to the fact that receipts both from customs and from internal revenue are running far ahead of the most sanguine calculations made at the beginning of the fiscal year.

If receipts from these sources continue for the remainder of the year at the same rate as for the first four months the customs revenues will be $20,000,000 in excess of Secretary Gage's estimate, and the internal revenue will be $24,000,000 larger than he estimated. His estimate of receipts from miscellaneous sources will also be exceeded by some millions.

The total receipts for October this year amounted to $47,533,588, against $39,631,051 for the same month last year. The expenditures this year amount to $44,012,000 against $53,903,000 last year.

FIRST SNOW OF THE SEASON

Arrived Today Bringing Cold Weather with It.

It snowed in Janesville this morning. Although the white flakes failed to fall in such large quantities as to block railroad trains, the storm nevertheless brought with it weather of a chilly nature. The thermometer dropped several degrees during the day. Clothing and shoe merchants are pleased; so are the coal and wood dealers. Contractor Watson is rushing the Milwaukee street pavement work, as he feare the coming of snow.

ACUTE INTEREST AT WASHINGTON

FEDERAL OFFICIALS ANXIOUS ABOUT ELECTIONS.

President McKinley Feels Certain That Ohio Will Go Republican—All the Democrats Expect to Do Next Tuesday Is to Carry Nebraska and Maryland.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1—The acute interest which is manifested by officials of the government here in the coming elections, particularly in Ohio, is entirely out of proportion to the apparent importance of the events. The greatest uncertainty and anxiety is shown by men of each party. Notwithstanding the uneasiness which is felt by republicans over the outcome in Ohio, the belief is not general among democrats that there is any great probability of McLean being elected governor.

The dissatisfaction among the democrats in Ohio with their candidate, and the presence in the field of Jones, the independent candidate, who is expected to draw his vote largely from the democrats, are both considered favorable to the republicans. The principal fear of the republicans is that those members of their party who do not like Hanna will take the occassion to "turn him down."

President McKinley appears to be awake to the fact that the defeat of the republican party in his state would be equivalent to a repudiation of the present administration, and that his own fate in a large measure depends upon the election. It is recognized, therefore, that the republicans who fail to vote the republican ticket will, through their desire for revenge on Hanna, place themselves in a position to be responsible for a slap at the administration. The president is understood to venture everything on the result of the Ohio election, and it is believed that by making so depend upon it the danger will be materially reduced.

It is understood that all the democrats have any serious expectation of accomplishing at next Tuesday's elections is to hold Nebraska for Bryan and recapture Maryland, besides reducing the republican plurality in Ohio. Well informed democrats do not expect to elect Goebel in Kentucky. A failure by the democrats in both Kentucky and Maryland would, however, give them grave fears for the future.

Moscow, Nov. 1.—According to a stock-exchange dispatch from Lahore the British authorities in northern India are greatly disquieted by the situation among the natives. The fanatical mullah, Povind, is preaching rebellion to his coreligionists, and it has been deemed necessary to expedite the dispatch of troops.

Victory for the Bankers.

Washington, Nov 1.—Bankers win a decided victory over express companies by a ruling of Commissioner Wilson of the internal revenue bureau, made Tuesday, in which he holds that an express company which buys or sells foreign money exchange is subject to the special tax of $50 a year as a broker for each office at which it transacts such business.

AGUINALDO IS IN RAPID RETREAT

IS FORCING THE WAR

REPORTED THAT AGUINALDO MOVED HIS CAPITAL.

Much of the Enemy's Country Has Fallen Into the Hands of the American Troops—The Plan Is to Hem the Rebels In a Pocket and then Bag Them—Gen. Young Makes Rapid Strides Through the Interior Sweeping All Before Him.

Manila, Nov. 1—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Gen. Lawton is making rapid strides in the campaign against Tarlac where Aguinaldo and the main body of the insurgents have been located for some time.

Aliaga, Talvera and Caban have been captured by the forces under Captains Hayes and Parker.

The last two towns are above Tarlac, indicating that it is General Lawton's intention to cut off rebel escape to the north.

It is already reported that Aguinaldo has escaped by removing the capital to Bayambang, thirty miles from Tarlac.

Parker and Hayes captured two brass cannon, seven hundred Hotchkiss shells, forty torpedoes, forty-five thousand rounds of cartridges, also a large quantity of food supplies.

AGUINALDO IS IN RETREAT

Leaves American Troops in Possession of Much Country

Manila, Nov. 1.—Information just received says the main insurgent army in front of MacArthur is retreating to the northeast, leaving only a small force to harass MacArthur's troops. Aguinaldo is said to have established a new capital at Bayongong, and is living in the near-by town of Dials, in the great tobacco valley northeast, over the mountains.

If this is true, we shall soon practically control the entirt valley north of Manila, but a new campaign will be necessary to force Aguinaldo to surrender his new revenue-producing territory.

PLAN IS TO HEM IN AGUINALDO.

Gen. Young's Advance Pushing Rapidly North and East.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Cable advices to the war department today indicate that Gen. Young's column is steadily continuing its advance, in spite of unfavorable conditions. A cablegram from Gen. Otis says:

"Young is advancing north and east of Cabanatuan; will occupy Talavera and probably Aliaga today; objective San Jose and Carranglan; wet season has rendered roads in that section impracticable for wagon transportation and progress is difficult."

A message from Gen. Miller at Manila states that William P. Chamberlain, the messenger who was wounded in the fight in which Capt. Guy Howard was killed, is doing well.

Gen. Young's advance to the north and east of San Isidro as far as Cabanatuan, sixteen miles from Lawton's base, and the official advices from Gen. Otis that Young's objective points are San Jose and Caranglan, sixty-three miles northeast of San Isidro, indicate to the war department officials that this is a movement to prevent the insurgents from retreating to the northeast and compelling them to fight or surrender before they can get out of the territory cut by the Dagupan railroad.

Gen. Lawton will follow Young's advance, probably keeping more to the west and nearer the railroad, and Gen. MacArthur will move north along the railroad to Tarlac at the proper time to give battle to the insurgents there and follow them north to Dagupan. There are one or two gunboats already in Lingayan bay, off Dagupan, and it is said that Gen. Otis will send another body of troops around to land at Lingayan or Dagupan, so as to completely hem in Aguinaldo.

It is expected that this movement will end the insurrection, so far as Aguinaldo is concerned, by his capture or surrender.

The war department expects to hear of rapid developments now, and that the American forces will not only have possession of the railroad throughout its entire length from Manila to Dagupan—a distance of 146 miles—within two weeks, but that they will also convince Aguinaldo that his insurrection is at an end.

Death of Capt. French.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Gen. Otis notified the war department that Capt. Charles French, who was wounded at Florida Blanca, had died of shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg. Capt. French went to Manila with the First Montana volunteers.

TWENTY-FIVE MEN HERE AFTER LEAF

AMERICAN TOBACCO MEN ARE BUYING.

Their Buyers Have Been Riding Through the Hail Stricken Districts of Late—Cases Purchased Will Number Thousands—Good Prices Prevail.

Throughout Rock county during the past few days the leaf tobacco market has developed a good deal of activity through an effort to gather up the cheaper grades of the 1899 crop. Twenty-five or more representatives of the American Tobacco company have been riding througout the hail cut districts and buying large quantities of this tobacco. This has attracted other dealers into the field and a decidedly lively chase has ensued. It is probable that from 5,000 to 6,000 cases of this class of tobacco have been contracted for at from 3 to 6 cents in the bundle. There is some riding for old stock remaining in grower's hands, and a few hundred cases marketed at 8 cents or better.

The pleasant weather of October has been e great help in curing out the late harvested tobacco which seems destined to come out better than was anticipated a few weeks ago. There are some indications that a general buying of the crop is near at hand and buyers are frequently seen in all the growing districts.

F. S. Baines of Janesville is credited with the largest sale of old goods for the week to the Collins Cigar company of Pittsburg.

The shipments out of storage from Edgerton to all points reach sixteen carloads, about 900 cases, for the week.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans' Son, tobacco brokers, No. 128 Water street, New York, for the week ending Oct. 30, 1899.

250 cases, crop of 1898, Wisconsin Havana, at 6 to 13½ cents.

100 cases, crop of 1898, Dutch, at 11½ cents.

500 cases, crop of 1898, Zimmers, at 12 to 15½ cents.

150 cases crop of 1898, Gebhardt, at 15 to 12½ cents.

350 cases, crop of 1898, Flats, at 18 to 30 cents.

LANGTRY AND HUSBAND PART

London Beauty's Latest Matrimonial Venture Terminated by Jealousy

London, Nov. 1—Mrs. Langtry and her latest husband, Hugo De Bathe, it is believed, have separated forever. The popular account of the quarrel is to the effect that De Bathe was jealous.

The principals refuse to talk, but theatrical people are talking freely and telling all sorts of sensational and interesting stories about the De Bathe menage.

Mrs. Langtry is not a woman addicted to maudlin sentiment. She regards the situation from a jocular standpoint. It is said that, like May Yohe, she invariably makes a point of referring to her husband as "it."

Young De Bathe was disowned for marrying Mrs. Langtry, and now the young man finds himself without either wife or fortune.

NIGHT-SHIRTS PARADE

Intense Indignation Among the Co-Eds at the Madison State University.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Never in the history of the University of Wisconsin has indignation in college or town circles run so high over student effervescence as over the night-shirt parade of Monday evening and the incidents following it. The faculty is investigating the matter, and it is said, has decided to expel every student found to have been implicated in the affair. The offense is the forcible breaking into the women's hall and rifling the laundry of the young women which was worn on the street in the parade and later carried home as trophies. The humiliation of the women is deepened by the fact that every piece of linen at the hall must be stamped with the owner's name. But besides this act private rooms were broken into and sofa pillows and crockery stolen.

The girls of the hall have prepared a list of the students recognized, but are loth to make it public because of the exposure. However, the dean of the university it said to have a list already and it is said that the leniency that has marked former disciplining of outbreaks will be absent in the prosecutions to follow. When dispersed by the police the students promised to restore the laundry and a number indiscreetly added to the humiliation of the young women today by calling on them and returning the missing property.

HARD COAL IS STILL GOING UP.

Retail Dealers Met in Milwaukee and Shoved It Up Another Notch.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—At a meeting of the coal dealers held yesterday between 11 and 12 o'clock a. m. it was formally decided to advance the price of anthracite coal 25 cents on a ton on egg and stove sizes and 50 cents a ton on chestnut. This will make the retail price in the Milwaukee market $25 for egg and stove and $7.50 for chestnut. As predicted some months ago, the local dealers have taken the lead in this movement, and have not waited for orders from the eastern mining companies, to make the advance.

Attempted to Commit Suicide.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1—Arthur Siegler who was arrested Monday on a charge of stealing a score or more of bicycles, nineteen of which were recovered and brought to Central Police station to await their owner's appearance, made an attempt to commit suicide in his cell yesterday forenoon, though he was caught in time to prevent him from carrying out his intentions.

WISCONSIN DAIRYMEN TO MEET

Executive Board Will Consider Invitations For Next Convention.

Fort Atkinson, Wis., Nov. 1—The Executive Board of the Wisconsin Dairymen's association will meet at Fort Atkinson, Wednesday, Nov. 15, to make arrangements for the coming annual convention. These annual meetings have been very popular in the past and have been productive of great benefit to the dairy interests of the locality where held. It is the policy of the association to visit the different sections of the state as far as practicable, but it wants to be assured in advance of local encouragement and support, for it is the people who attend and the enthusiasm of the local managers that give life and vim to a convention. To this end the board invites correspondence from localities that have a desire to secure the convention for next winter. Letters addressed to the secretary, G. W. Burchard, Fort Atkinson, Wis., will be laid before the board.

TO INFLUENCE THE GERMAN VOTE

Governor Scofield Airs His Anti-Expansion Views in a Letter.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1—Governor Scofield has furnished for publication in a local afternoon paper a reiteration of his well known views on the Philippine question. His argument may be said to be in favor of national contraction rather than against expansion; and for the rest, it is interlarded with the stock phraseology of the Atkinson school of small Americans.

Interest no longer attaches to governor Scofield's opinions in the matter, whether here or in the state at large, since the one time anticipated indorsement of his attitude by Senator Spooner has failed to eventuate. While the letter's publication is recognized as a transparent democratic trick, intended to influence the sound judgment of German republicans, Major Scofield is not held to be an accessory to the scheme.

LEONID METEORS ARE DUE AGAIN

BRILLIANT HEAVENLY DISPLAY DURING THIS MONTH.

Flying Meteors Expected In Large Number—Evenings of November 14 and 15 Will Be the Most Favorable Times—Astronomical Date For Month of November.

The Leonid meteors will be due again in force this month. For several years past a considerable number of them have been seen each November, but this year they may be expected to make a more numerous appearance. They start apparently from the Sickle in the constellation Leo, which is high in the early morning. These meteors are very swift in their flight and differ greatly in brilliancy. The mornings of November 14 and November 15 will be the most favorable times for seeing them if the sky is clear.

Considerable interest has been aroused by the remarkable clustering of the major planets in one vicinity of the heavens, that in which the sun is now situated. Neptune stands far apart by itself, forty degrees away from the celestial North pole and is on the meridian at about 2 o'clock in the morning; but the remaining six major planets are all near the sun. They all follow that body and set soon afterward, except Jupiter, which is now west and therefore precedes the sun. Venus and Mercury are evening stars but are not yet conspicuous. The former is drawing away from the sun, however, and will soon become the brilliant evening star. On Nov. 16 the planet may be seen close by Mars, a little higher than the latter. Mercury reaches greatest greatest elongation east Nov. 16, and may be seen close by Venus, a little lower, on Nov. 25.

The times of sunrise and sunset at Janesville for the month are as follows; Nov. 1, 6:26 a. m, and 4:44 p. m.; Nov. 11, 6:39 a. m. and 4:32 p. m.; Nov. 21, 6-52 a. m. and 4:23 p. m.; Nov. 31, 7:36 a, m, and 4:18 p. m,

The times of the moon's phases are: New moon, Nov. 3, 4:27 a. m.; first quarter, Nov. 10, 7:35 a. m.; full moon, Nov. 17, 4:19 a. m.; third quarter. Nov. 25, 12:35 a. m.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month in the evening are: To the west, Vega, Altair, the bright stars of the Square of Pegasus. To the east: Aldebaran, the Pleaids and Capella.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Ferris Comedians presented "An Innocent Sinner" at Myers Grand opera house last night to a very fair audience. As of "My Jim," very little can be said of the play. It lacks cohesion and probability. The story revolves about a crime alleged to have been committed in a hypnotic condition. The whole thing is far stretched to say the least. But however poor the vehicles the members of the company carried their parts well. There was considerable extempore business both in the play and in the specialties and it was not smooth or artistic. The company has undeniable talent and with a little more pains and sticking to "lines" the public would be better pleased. Dick Ferris had a sitting part last night, but he did that well. Ferdinand Grahame carried himself in a manly fashion that always pleases the audience, Kittie De Lorma always makes a good stage presence from a skipping rope dance to the Lord's Prayer. Sadie Stockton was very fair in her tragic part.

Tonight "On the Ohio" will be given. The manager gives promise that something good may be expected. New specialties will be introduced.

THE NOVEMBER NATIONAL

An Illustrated Story of the Transvaal Struggle the Leading Feature.

Clever Joe Chapple, editor of the National Magazine, has scored another triumph over his contemporarie by bringing out, in the November issue of his publication, an article on the South African situation, written by an American just home from the scene of the great conflict. Peter MacQueen, the brilliant staff writer, who has been in the Philippine Islands for a year, in the interest of the National, has returned to Boston. He tells some inside facts about the situation in the far east that no other writer has had the courage to handle.

Then there are many short stories, poems and timely articles, including an illustrated article entitled "Historic Green Bay" by Fenton S. Fox, who will have an article descriptive of Janesville in the December number.

Lovers of high class literature will have a rare treat in the December National. The gifted poet and student, Charles Perez Murphy, has completed a new paraphrase of "The Rubaiyat" after two years' labor and it will appear as the leading feature of the beautiful Christmas National.

Janesville is fortunate in being prominence in the same issue with Mr. Murphy's wonderful literary product, for there will be a word wide demand for that number.

Fog Causes Collision.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—The dense fog Tuesday was the cause of a collision between a local passenger train on the Wabash railroad and a Wentworth avenue electric train, consisting of a motor car and a trailer. The trailer was demolished, the motor car was wrecked and three persons were hurt. The injured are:

Henry Barrett, conductor of trailer; face and head severely cut.

P. J. Kane, police officer; head and left leg cut.

Germany's Increased Naval Power.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Press emphasizes the ministerial Berlin Korrespondenz's declaration that a number of battleships must be permanently stationed at Kiao Chou, where docks and a coaling station are now building, to prevent the German Chinese sphere from sharing the fate of the Philippines. The article does not mention the United States, but the main argument for the new naval program is the rise of the United States as a naval power.

Transportation for Volunteers.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—The Fifty-first Iowa volunteers have been notified by Adjt.-Gen. Byers that the state would furnish transportation from here to each man's actual home, no matter where enlisted. The state has provided three special sleeping-car trains and subsistence, to leave here tomorrow with the regiment as fast as it is mustered out. The Iowans will be guests of Council Bluffs and Des Moines as they pass through the state.

Guilford, Ind., Nov. 1.—A freight train on the Big Four crashed through a bridge a mile west Tuesday, killing Ed McCreary of South Bend, Ind., and seriously injuring W. D. Clark of Somerset, Ky., who may die. Both were stealing a ride. Clark says there is another man in the wreck and that he saw two colored men on the train before the accident. Fifteen cars of lumber were piled in the crek.

Will Help the Boers.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 1.—A letter received here, dated at Cape Town, says that Henry J. Meyer, son of the millionaire wholesale druggist at St. Louis, has closed up his South African business, so as to be able to assist the Boers in their struggle against Great Britain. His uncle here says his sentiments are with the young man.

BIG SYSTEMS ARE TO UNITE.

Telegraph, Telephone, and Cable Systems to Consolidate.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 1.—The North American says:

"One of the greatest financial combinations of the century is in progress of formation. The organizers of the Continental Telegraph, Telephone and Cable company, recently incorporated in New Jersey, have obtained control of all the independent telephone companies in the United States and aim to combine these with the great telegraph companies and the five Atlantic cable companies. The office of the new concern is in the American Surety company's building, New York city. From various sources it is learned that the capitalists interested in the venture include J. Pierpont Morgan, George J. Gould, John Jacob Astor, William C. Whitney, P. A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins."

Troops to Be Kept at Marion.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 1.—Col. James B. Smith, who was sent to Marion and Carterville to report on the strike conditions and the condition of the jail at Marion and the treatment of the prisoners confined therein, reports that the situation at Carterville is very quiet and that he did not believe it justified the keeping of an entire company of troops there. He advised the retaining of some troops to guard the jail at Marion. The jail at Marion he reported to be in fairly good condition and the food of the prisoners and their treatment good.

Acting on Col. Smith's report, Gov. Tanner ordered the withdrawal of all of company B, Fourth infantry, of Newton, from Carterville, except twenty men under Capt. E. Wood Herst, the remainder to return home. The soldiers now on duty at the jail at Marion will be retained.

Many Tinplate Mills Closed.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 1.—Of the eighty-nine plants controlled by the American Tinplate company, 106 mills are shut down. This, it is claimed, is equal to the total capacity of sixteen plants, and means a loss to labor of nearly $371,000 a month, and to the trust of $20,000 monthly in interest on unproductive investment and possibly millions in lost profits. Over 2,000 men are idle in the rolling mill department alone, and thousands more in the other departments.

The managers of the trust say the shut-down is caused for repairs and because of their inability to get steel, but the workers claim the trust is selling steel to other consumers and making a greater profit than would be the case if the material was worked into tin.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.

I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it. They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

BRYAN TALKS NONSENSE.

William J. Bryan is desperate these days, and is saying things that will live to torment him in the time to come. That he is not sincere in his arguments is evident, for he is too intelligent a man to believe the doctrines that he advocates. Here is a sample, taken from one of his recent speeches:

Thirty-five years ago the republicans declared that no white man could own a black man under the American flag; now some of the republicans assert that this nation can rightfully purchase brown people from an alien monarch at $2 apiece, and then put them to death if they object to the bargain.

Bryan knows that under American rule the Filipinos will enjoy more liberty and more advantages than have ever been accorded them. He knows that they will not be slaves, yet he compares them to the negro slaves of the south—as if the United States contemplated handcuffing them, and selling them, like animals, to the highest bidder.

Bryan has become a mere "kicker." He opposes everything that the republicans favor, without reason and often without sense. He has a ready tongue and an elastic conscience, but he cannot fool the people with any such arguments as the one above quoted. They know he is—well, mistaken—and his speeches will go in one ear and out of the other.

John B. Gordon, the noted ex-Confederate lieutenant general, recently lectured at Milwaukee. When asked by a reporter for an expression as to the administration's policy, he said: "On that subject you may say that Gen. Gordon is for his country. My heart is filled with love for the old flag, and wherever it goes I am right there."

Chicago people were frightened the other night by a mysterious flash of light and a loud report. They could find no reason for the display, but the supposition is that the flash was occasioned by Billy Mason's blush, while the report was the result of someone's firing a gun at him.

The Chicago Tribune has taken a long step in the right direction in compiling a concise summary of the day's news and publishing it on the first page. If all the metropolitan papers would follow The Tribune's example, they would be more popular. When a person buys a city paper these days, he gets altogether too much for his money.

Mayor Richardson is right in refusing to sign orders for the payment for the work on Fourth avenue. The work was illegally done, and the city cannot legally pay for it. The property owners should foot the bill, voluntarily.

The Recorder, which reprinted the Democratic Chicago Chronicle's frantic appeals for a declaration of war a short time ago, now calls it "McKinley's fool war." 'Twas ever thus.

Senator Billy Mason of Chicago, should form a political partnership with Magnus A. Hess, also of Chicago, with headquarters in one small room with a single bed.

A heading in a Chicago paper reads: "Four Armed Robbers Held Up Saloon Keeper." Robbers with four arms ought to be able to hold up almost anyone.

Constant Reader—No. You are mistaken. Illinois was called "the sucker state" long before Billy Mason was born.

However, Admiral Dewey has not "cancelled ALL his engagements." He is to be married next month.

Alderman Carpenter, apparently, believes in looking before he leaps. The rule is a safe one.

Why doesn't Billy Mason put on a Mother Hubbard, and tackle the housework?

Bryan, however, naturally has pickled ideas.

And as to Senator Hoar—but we forbear.

MASONIC MEMBERS VISIT WHITEWATER

DELEGATION OF THIRTY FROM THE BOWER CITY.

Janesville Masons Took Part In the Laying of the Corner Stone of a New City Hall—Left This Morning at 10:45 O'clock—Will Return Home This Evening.

Thirty members of the local Masonic order left Janesville this morning at 10:45 o'clock for Whitewater where they took part in the laying of the corner stone of a new city hall. The local delegation were met at Whitewater on their arrival and escorted to Masonic headquarters. This evening the majority expect to return.

St. John's Masonic lodge had charge of the ceremonies. Officers of the grand lodge were present and there was also delegations in attendance from the neighboring towns.

The program included an address by Grand Master Charles E. Whelan of Madison and on address of welcome by Mayor Wilkinson. There was singing by the Glee Club and instrumental music by the Whitewater band. The Rev. E. Perry, grand chaplain, made prayer and the Rev. A. M. Johnson pronounced the benediction. The procession to the hall consisted of the Whitewater band, Co. C, First regiment, Curtice Post, G. A. R., the Fire department, school children, Catholic Knights, lodges of Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Modern Woodmen, United Workmen and other civic societies.

The building which is to cost $12,800, will be a handsome structure of red brick trimmed with rockfaced stone, two stories high with a tower extending about twenty feet above the roof. The interior will be finished in hardwood. Steam will be used to heat the building. It will be located at Center and Whitewater streets. The side facing the east will be constructed in a semi-circle thirty feet in diameter. This well-lighted portion of the building will be devoted to the library and council chamber.

The major portion of the ground floor will be occupied by the library and a room for the fire apparatus. The city marshal's office will be on the west side of the Center street front, and back of this the jail will be placed. On the second floor will be the council chamber, offices of the mayor and the city clerk, municipal court room, headquarters for the firemen, besides a justice court and a committee room. The contracts call for the completion of the building on or before April 1, 1900.

Great Britain May Quit Samoa.

New York, Nov. 1.—A special from Washington says: "Germany has won the first trick in the international game. Great Britain has expressed her willingness to retire from Samoa and leave the settlement of the question to the United States and Germany. The matter is now under process of negotiation, with the United States amused, Germany gratified and Great Britain flurried."

Dead Languages.

There are certain languages which, although they are still spoken and written in, are to all intents and purposes dead. For instance, Icelandic is practically identical with the dead Norse language, out of which the Scandinavian tongues have grown. So, too, Provencal, the ancient language of Provincia, and the speech in which the troubadours sang, has now sunk to the level of a patois, although a certain French literary school is making efforts to revive it as a literary language. Hebrew, again, though still spoken, is to all intents and purposes dead in the sense that Greek and Latin are. Cornish, Manx and the old, mysterious Romany tongue are also examples which should be mentioned in this connection.

Victoria a Busy Woman.

Queen Victoria now spends a considerable portion of her leisure in reading or in having read to her the proofs of forthcoming publications in which she is interested. It is said that this is the real reason why both the official biography of the duchess of Teck and the more eagerly awaited life of Lord Beaconsfield have been delayed so long. In each case her majesty has insisted on reading every document and letter, says the Baltimore News. No royal biography was ever published under the personal supervision of a British sovereign until that of the prince consort appeared.

Cheaper Than Paying Rent.

Moving to pay rent is an old story, but how many know that there are persons in New York who hire a moving van by the year? It is said to be a fact that two months is the limit that certain families set for their stay in any favored quarters. In the first place, they will never move in unless a month's rent free is promised. They live the first month out in peace, pay no rent the second month, the van calls at the end of that time and on they move, to start in the same way and end with the van again. The van man knows, but he doesn't say anything about a good customer. That is not his business.

Pigmy Camels of Persia.

The western part of Persia is inhabited by a species of camel which is the pigmy of its kind. They are now snow white and are on that account almost worshiped by the people. The shah presented the municipality of Berlin with two of these little wonders. The largest is twenty-seven inches high and weighs sixty-one pounds. The other is four inches less, but the weight is not given.

STATE UNITARIANS IN REGULAR SESSION

TODAY'S PROGRAM OF SPECIAL INTEREST.

Boston, Chicago and Milwaukee Divines Took Part In the Program—Business Session This Afternoon—Rev. Jones Will Give An Address This Evening—Supper In Order.

Delegates to the twenty-second annual Wisconsin conference of Unitarian and Independent societies, spent a most profitable day at All Souls church. At 10 o'clock this morning the day's session opened with Rev. C. F. Niles of Menominee, as chairman. The morning session took the form of a missionary rally.

Rev. Franklin C. Southworth of Chicago, spoke of the Missionary motive. All powerful religions have been inspired, he said, by the missionary motive. Whoever has a gospel of truth and hope is impelled to spread it abroad. The religions which have appealed most to the emotions of fear and hope have been most successful in propagating their ideas. Dogmatic forms of thought are self moving energies. As this form of authority passes the church must be inspired by higher motives with truth for authority.

Rev. W. G. Eliot of Milwaukee, followed with an address on the "Possibilities of Missionary Work in Wisconsin." The speaker spoke of many fields in the state where the people are ready for the Unitarian form of thought.

Rev. Paul R. Frothingham of Boston, followed with a brief but to-the-point address on the progress of the work of today as conducted by the Unitarian church. He said that people were all born religious if they only know it and that all the masses required to develop these holy instincts was time. Rev. Frothingham complimented the western people on their hustling ability in every line not only in religious circles but in business. He said that more of this hustle should manifest itself in Unitarian work.

This afternoon a platform meeting was held, participated in by Revs. Eliot, Fenn and Frothingham, the subject under discussion being "The Nature, Value and Method of Public Worship."

At 4 o'clock a business meeting was held. Many delegates favor the reelection of the present officers.

This evening at 6 o'clock a church supper will be served, followed by an address by Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago. The session closes tomorrow.

The Proceedings Last Night.

Last evening at 8 o'clock the conference opened, the Rev. C. F. Niles invoking the divine blessing. Mrs. Thomas Wallis presided at the organ and Rev. A. G. Willis delivered the address of welcome.

Owing to the absence of President J. H. Stout of Menominee, the response to the address of welcome was delivered by First Vice President W. J. Eliot, of Milwaukee.

Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, representative of the American Unitarian association, Boston, who is attending the conference, was introduced, and extended the greetings of the association.

Rev. W. W. Fenn of Chicago, gave the address of the evening taking for his subject "The History of Unitarianism in America." His discourse was a most able one and plainly showed that the speaker was a well informed man on the subject. The lecture was illustrated the stereopticon being in charge of Supt. D. D. Mayne.

WILL TEST A WISCONSIN LAW

Building and Loan Association Contest Go to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1—The Wisconsin law requiring a deposit of securities with the state treasurer by building and loan associations incorporated in other states is to be tested in the United States Supreme court.

The state law provides that all building and loan associations incorporated in other states must deposit with the state treasurer enough securities to cover the shares sold to residents of this state, and according to that law the American Savings and Loan Association of Minneapolis deposited $100,000 and later went into insolvency. The receiver, William D. Hale of Minneapolis, demanded that the securities in the hands of the state treasurer be turned over to him for the use of the entire body of shareholders. The state supreme court refused, holding that under the statue the assets in the hands of the Wisconsin officials must be devoted to paying the Wisconsin shareholders of the company, and appointed a receiver in this state to so apply the securities. Receiver Hale contests this action, and has applied to the United States supreme court.

The case will be a test of the right of a state to hold securities for the use of the shareholders who reside in the state.

Next Saturday's Football Games.

Next Saturday will be a big day for football in the west as well as in the east, Wisconsin being scheduled to meet the Alumni at Madison, Chicago against Purdue at Chicago, Northwestern at Minneapolis against Minnesota, and Beloit against Lake Forest; while in the east Yale will try conclusions with West Point, Princeton against Brown, Harvard against Pennsylvania, and Cornell against Columbia at New York. The contest at Minneapolis will determine the strength of Minnesota, as Wisconsin defeated Northwestern by an overwhelming score less than three weeks ago, and the result will give the Badgers a pointer on their finish with the Gophers, who were long ago their most dreaded opponents.

Beat the yolks of the eggs very light and add them to the orange and sugar, then stir in the cream. Let this cook very slowly until it is of the desired thickness, then pour it into cups. The whites of the eggs should be beaten very diligently, and a teacupful of powdered sugar should be beaten with them. Put a large spoonful of this on the top of each cup.

MANY CELEBRATED HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS WERE MANY IN JANESVILLE.

Dancing and Card Parties Were In Force—The Small Boy and Girl Were On Hand As Usual—Police Report But Little Serious Damage As Compared ta Last Year.

Hallowe'en was celebrated in Janesville last evening in a way that plainly indicated that Bower City residents were well aware that the night of pranks had arrived.

It was rather a quiet Hallowe'en on the whole, though in some parts of the city the small boy and the small girl as well, took advantage of the unwritten if not the constitutional prerogative of causing all the annoyance desired on this one day of the year. No extra police were necessary, as was the case not many years ago, the regular night men having little additional work except to occasionally warn a too noisy crowd of youngsters and keep a watchful eye on woodpiles, with a tendency to fall and gates of uncertain stability.

In the residence portion of town every neighborhood had its quota of young Americans who rang door bells, threw beans, moved stepping stones and scampered around the block at the first sight of a "copper," while all the numerous Hallowe'en tricks, harmless as a rule, though sometimes a little exasperating for the person upon whom they are played, were given a trial.

Hallowe'en Social

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gage entertained a merry crowd at their South Second street home last evening.

Miss Felton Entertains

Last evening at the Madison street home of Mrs. Henry Palmer, Miss Mae Felton entertained a number of friends. The evening was spent in games most appropriate for Hallowe'en.

Gave Card Party

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Murdock entertained a number of friends last evening at their spacious South Third street home. Tempting refreshments were in order and the evening proved to be one most pleasantly spent.

Caledonian Social

At Concordia hall last evening members of the Rock County Caledonian society and their friends celebrated with the holding of a dancing social. Prof. Smith's orchestra furnished excellent music and if was one o'clock when the festivities came to a close. George Skinner had the affair in charge.

Christ Church Guild

At the Christ church parish house last evening there was a merry time in store. From 5:30 to 7 o'clock supper was served and in the parish hall the balance of the evening was spent in a social time.

Twentieth Century Club.

The Twentieth Century club met at the law office of Hendricks & Earle last evening. There was a debate on the question: "Resolved, that it is for the best interest of the public that municipalities own and control public utilities." Burr Scott and William Denniston spoke on the affirmative and Charles Reeder and Edwin Norcross on the negative. The judges found for the negative.

The next session of the club will be held two weeks from last night, when A. M. Fisher will present a paper on "American Tariff Legislation."

THOSE who appreciate talent, art and intelligence will surely not miss the People's Lecture Course this season. Five superb entertainments are booked and the tickets for the entire course are but $1.00. Many of the attractions are worth the price of the season tickets. The first on the list will be the London Glee Singers next Monday evening.

What Gov. Peck Says

FAIR DRAWING LARGE CROWDS

Sisters of Mercy Entertainment Is Proving Most Popular.

At the Armory the Sisters fair is still in progress and is drawing good sized crowds. The booths this year are more attractive than ever and local merchants have been most generous in their donations. Last evening the attendance was large and all seemed to have a most enjoyable time. Prof. Tuckwood's orchestra furnished the music.

MISSION WOMEN MET TODAY

CHARLES TRASK PLACED IN JAIL

CHARGED WITH THE LARCENY OF MUCH GOLD.

Officers Allege That They Have a Clear Case—Janesville Police Notified Yesterday—After the Alleged Robbing of a Beloit Companion Trask Makes For the City of Milwaukee.

A cell in the Rock county jail now awaits Charles Trask of Beloit, and Deputy Samuel Brown has prepared the same for occupancy. Trask is charged with the larceny of $111 in cash from Hans Hanson of Beloit. He was arrested in Milwaukee yesterday and has been taken back to the Line City.

As soon as the crime was discovered a message was sent to Janesville notifying the officers but Trask had evidently made Milwaukee via some other city.

Hanson, who boards at Johnson's boarding house in Beloit, went to his trunk last evening to get a dollar for one of his fellow workmen and found his bank had been robbed. His suspicion at once pointed to Charles Trask, a man who had been boarding with him since last Wednesday, and who found the hiding place of the money.

Inquiry developed the fact that Trask had not been home to supper and it was ascertained that he had been in Carter & Hamlets saloon in the afternoon accompanied by a goodly sum of the coin of the realm which he was very free to spend. He told the bartender that he had to catch a train for Rockford at 3:25.

MONROE MAN GETS PERMIT

Couple In His Town Needed Help From Judge Dunwiddie.

District Attorney Harvey Clark of Green County made a flying trip here Monday to get a special marriage order from Judge Dunwiddie.

George Dickey and Miss Emma Kerns were at Monroe from Wenona, Ill., to be married but had their fondest hopes prolonged by a cruel marriage law.

It not without much trouble and expense however, but the fellow was game. After Judge Becker failed to make his appearance he sent District Attorney Harvey Clark to Janesville. A stenographer did some swift work at Janesville and the attorney brought back the much desired document of consent from the court on a late train last evening and Rev. H. Miller was hastily summoned. The happy couple left for home as man and wife.

THE CHARTERED COMPANY.

A Shareholder's Empire Which Is South Africa's Disturbing Element.

BY HOWARD SPENCE SINCLAIR.

Back of all the troubles in South Africa, behind the motive which prompts England to crush two small republics with a great army, is that great organization known as the British South Africa company.

This is the Chartered company of which Cecil Rhodes is the leading spirit. The patent creating it was signed by Queen Victoria on the 29th of October, in the fifty-third year of her reign (1890). The Duke of Abercorn is president and the Duke of Fife (her majesty's son-in-law) is vice president.

Among the directors are Cecil John Rhodes and Alfred Beit, merchant. It was this "merchant" who coolly acknowledged before the parliamentary committee that he remembered having subscribed £200,000 toward fitting out the Jameson raiders. Jameson himself at the time was the administrator of the company. The rank and file of the raiders were taken from the mounted police in the service of the corporation. The men who had vanquished the fierce Matabele were routed and made prisoners by the Boers.

The jurisdiction claimed by the company extends north from the Transvaal across the Zambezi to the Kongo Free State, bounded on the east by Portuguese East Africa and on the west by the German and Portuguese possessions. It is estimated to contain about 750,000 square miles, an area equal to that of France, Germany and Austria combined.

The stock of the Chartered company was originally fixed at 1,000,000 shares of a par value of £1. It has since been increased to 3,750,000 shares, all paid. It is quoted at a high premium, but is little dealt in. It has paid no dividends, nor, under present circumstances, is it likely to do so before the interest eats up the capital.

When you remember that these 3,750,000 shares are distributed in small lots among hundreds of thousands of English investors, a few big lots being retained by the directors, you will readily see that the English are intensely interested in whatever concerns this faroff chartered empire.

These shareholders are very anxious for a change of affairs in South Africa. They want to enjoy the long expected dividends which have been so often promised, but which have never materialized.

Rhodesia, in spite of the brilliant prospectuses which are issued from time to time, is thus far a financial failure. None but the far famed reputation of Cecil Rhodes could survive such a failure. But the man who organized the diamond trust and who has made many millions for himself has not yet succeeded in finding another Johannesburg or another Kimberley on the domains of the Chartered company.

In a quiet way this company has set up the government of Rhodesia on its territory south of the Zambezi. The income from this portion of the company's possessions was for the year ending March 31, 1899, $1,365,000, with an expenditure of $3,915,000. This, with the estimated deficit for the current year, will make a round sum of $1,000,000 in two years due to the present company.

After the destruction of the power of the Matabele, Rhodesia was boomed in the very loudest American speculators' way. Men were hired to visit it and write it up. In Mashonaland were vein workings so old that they were declared to be of the real, genuine, original Ophir which had furnished the treasures of King Solomon. It was foretold that many Rands would be discovered and many Johannesburgs would be built. Up to the present writing these predictions are very far from being realized; not one rich mine has been discovered.

The company has done everything possible to encourage immigration, but even from the colonies or the republics the cost of reaching there is great. Land is offered to settlers on the payment in advance of an annual quit rent of £3 for 3,000 acres, but very few Boers or Europeans have gone into the country with the intention of making a home. Prospectors come back disgusted, cursing the country and the Chartered company, which holds the title to all minerals and can claim half the profit in any mining undertaking.

NEW FALL FURS.

Some Suitable Costumes For the Chill Days of October.

Fur collarettes are the most stylish of all additions to a costume, and as they will be in quite general use on cool days, almost before you read this, I shall mention a few of them.

The season of furs does not begin till November, but these collarettes may be worn all through October. There is a plaited victorine of chinchilla, the folds lying flat and close, ending in a stole front. The collar is high and round and has a rolled band border. At the throat is a bow of very pale pink tulle, with a fancy buckle imitating emeralds in the center. At the bottom of the stole tabs are ruffles of the tulle. Rather a queer combination altogether, but a pretty one as well.

Another arrangement is called a pelerine. This has the rolled high collar, the flare being a little more pronounced. The cape portion consists of two skunkskins laid over the shoulders flat, the heads hanging down. They join in the back in a sailor shape. In the open space in front there are four tails and two full rosettes of black velvet set at the neck.

A zibeline collar is high and fluted all around. There is no bottom part to this, so that the collar stands up directly from the dress. In front are four tails, two quite long, say a foot. At the throat is a fancy bow of cream lace held by a bunch of violets. These are artificial, but are intended for looks only and when worn will be replaced by real ones. Chinchilla is the fur in another one, made with a smaller and more rolling collar and with a cascade of ten tails. A velvet bow was set at the throat with a bunch of red roses.

There are victorines, boas and short capes among the new early furs. Some boas have the appearance of being just simply limp little animals, their heads, feet and tails all being a part of them.

These light furs are all that are required with the fall costumes. The most of them have neat jacket shaped coats, finished in close design around the neck. This makes these pretty, new furs a welcome addition.

It is not easy to say that tight, flaring, double, paneled, tunic or princess skirts will be the favorite, for at the present time they are all seen and often. Probably they will all be worn. Still, my own impression is, from what is seen here and abroad, that the flaring skirt, with or without tailor stitching, will be a favorite.

Just at present tailor stitching in heavy silk is the prime favorite. Some really elegant effects are wrought with it. There was one Havana brown cloth tailor suit, the lower skirt touching the ground all around. There was a tunic, with stripped applique around this, cut out in graceful shape and heavily stitched. The tight basque jacket was also similarly ornamented on waist and sleeves. The wide revers and collar were of striped seal brown velvet.

There was a brown felt hat trimmed with brown tulle, velvet, striped quills and a bunch of red haws. There are many gowns with the tunic imitated by trimming, and these range through all grades and kinds of material.

Brown suits, blue suits, automobile red suits, gray suits and black suits are all seen and are all fashionable. Dark green and several shades of prune are also in vogue. Some are very brilliant, and others, again, are very soft and subdued in tint. So much black is worn that I really think half the suits of the season are black. The new crepons have taken hold of popular favor, and at least in skirts we shall see much of it.

The ugly and graceless coats and wraps of the extremists are likely to find adherents. They are as shapeless as a man's coat would look on a woman. Add to that a desire to put some feminine touch to it, and you see the result. Some are cut box shape pure and simple. Others have a seam in the back. One has a slight point in the back and two in front, while the sides are slashed up nearly to the arms. Stitching trims this coat.

Then there are mantles simply beyond the powers of description. I noticed one in particular. It was of soft woolly zibeline plaid in gray white and brown. The plaid was at least eight inches square. It was cut in loose sack fashion and pointed deeply in the back and still deeper in front, so that the point nearly reached the bottom of the dress. Cut in with the side seams were wing shaped sleeves, which reached around in front like a cape.

The pretty and jaunty little jacket basques are the favorites. Very many have vest effects in front of the same or other material. Often one sees a dark red vest with gilt buttons and others made of regular vesting, such as our great grandfathers wore.

To Hold to Delagoa Bay.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Munich Allgemeine Zeitung states semi-officially that Portugal has not agreed to cede Delagoa bay to Great Britain, adding that this would be regarded by the Transvaal as an unfriendly act and expose Portuguese east Africa to attack by the Boers.

..LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH..

JOUBERT DEFEATS WHITE.

Engagement at Ladysmith Results in Boer Victory.

TWO REGIMENTS CAPTURED.

Transvaal Forces Take 1,500 Men and Six Guns, and Now Have the British Commander in a Dangerous Position—Buller at Cape Town.

London, Nov. 1.—The following Central News special from Ladysmith, dated Monday night, seems to confirm the Cape Town report:

"Another battle started before darkness set in, and the Boers are back again in their old position. The Boers' heavy guns, which were thought to have been finally silenced, again opened fire upon the town, and the enemy is again closing in.

"It is undoubted now that the Boers' falling back was merely a ruse to draw White entirely into the hilly country, and away from his camp. The situation creates great anxiety, and we are, in fact, about as we were before. To-day's work may be best described as not quite decisive."

London, Nov. 1.—The heart of the British nation was in its mouth last night over the news from the front sent by Gen. White, telling of the loss of two whole battalions and six guns through the clever strategic movement of the Boers.

The Daily Mail explains the Ladysmith disaster as follows: "By inquiry in military circles we learn that the origin of the disaster is not far to seek. The Gloucesters, the fusileers, and the Tenth mountain battery were sent to cover the left flank force moving on Lombard's Kop. The Boers cut in between them and the main body and at the same time outflanked them.

"They were thus surrounded and compelled to yield. Likewise it is further believed in military circles that the stampeding mules carried all the reserve ammunition and when the captured men had fired their seventy rounds apiece they had to surrender."

Field guns, Royal artillery, 36.

Battery of seven-pounders, 6.

Naval guns, 4.

While every one applauds Gen. White for taking the blame for the loss of the two battalions on his own shoulders, he is censured in several military quarters.

The Times' Cape Town special says that 18,000 Boers were engaged in the Ladysmith fight.

The Boers, flushed with success, will undoubtedly follow up their advantage. It is considered certain that they will make another assault immediately, and this may result in any one of several ways if the next battle is as discreetly managed by the Boers as Monday's was. With the Boers full of fresh courage and the British to an equal extent despondent, reverse will not be at all surprising.

White's and Yule's combined armies might even be defeated and forced to surrender, and the most White now hopes for is a siege, as that is about his only chance of salvation.

No re-enforcements are possible inside of a week or ten days, and even so it is practically impossible to get them to Ladysmith, as the Boers now control the railway between Ladysmith and Pietermaritzburg, and the distance by road is nearly 200 miles, and at many places well-nigh impassable.

To make matters still worse for Gen. White, it is strongly suspected that Ladysmith is also cut off from telegraphic communication, as up to a late hour last night no message bearing yesterday's date was received from Ladysmith, and even the war office is without advices.

News of the British reverse in Natal was jubilantly welcomed in nearly every European country. Only in Germany the satisfaction was neither so general nor so pronounced. France was the most jubilant of all. The rejoicing revives the stories of a fortnight ago of the contemplated continental alliance against Great Britain.

The Exchange Telegraph company learns from a reliable source that the policy of Yule in leaving Dundee may possibly be pursued by Gen. White, who may retire to Pietermaritzburg if it is possible to fight his way through the Boer force holding it.

Regarding the loss of the fusileers and the Gloucesters the Daily Telegraph says:

"The strength of the two regiments was probably about 750 each when the fusileers stormed the heights of Talana and lost heavily, and were further depleted as the result of trying to march from Glencoe to Ladysmith. At Reinfontein the Gloucesters bore the brunt of the fight, and were also in the encounter of Reitfontein, so they must have gone in Sunday night not over 700 strong, and with the mountain battery of four guns they would be under 1,000 men. The total loss, therefore, is about 1,600, including the forty-two officers and the newspaper correspondents who went along and were captured."

Forebodings of worse to come and anxiety as to the details of the present disaster are the main features of the public mind at this moment. All the military authorities agree that the situation of Gen. White's force at Ladysmith is precarious. Its capture or annihilation is by no means impossible, and such a blow to British prestige might easily have grave consequences elsewhere as well as in South Africa.

The material loss suffered by the British gravely impairs their offensive powers, to say nothing of the discouragement inevitable after the retreat from Dundee and this last disaster, as Sir George White terms it. The course of events will now entirely depend on the Boers.

They have still about a fortnight left before new British forces can arrive in which to carry out their plan of forcing the British across the Tugela, or compelling them to capitulate. If they continue to show the same enterprise and skill they have exhibited during the last few days, there is just a possibility that they may succeed in one or the other.

The cabinet has been summoned to meet today to discuss the situation in South Africa.

Formal Report of Heavy Loss.

London, Nov. 1.—The war office has received a dispatch from Gen. White, commanding the British forces at Ladysmith, reporting that the Royal Irish fusileers, No. 10 mountain battery and the Gloucester regiment were surrounded in the hills by the Boers, and after losing heavily were obliged to capitulate. Gen. White adds that the casualties have not yet been ascertained.

The following is the text of Gen. White's dispatch to the war office:

"Ladysmith, Oct. 30.—I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations today the Royal Irish fusileers, No. 10 mountain battery and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills and after losing heavily had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained.

"A man of the fusileers employed as a hospital orderly came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column, who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report.

"I formed a plan in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred and I am alone responsible for the plan. There is no blame whatever to the troops, as the position was untenable."

For Second Army Corps.

London, Nov. 1.—It is learned that the war office has ordered a second army corps to be in readiness to be called out.

The military officials have not yet decided whether the consummation of the plan will be necessary, but they are determined to have everything in readiness either for a demonstration in Europe of Great Britain's capabilities or for sending even a larger force to the scene of action.

Until the receipt of the news of the Ladysmith disaster, the latter course was considered out of the question. But now there is no knowing what steps will be decided upon.

Buller Hears News of Fight.

Cape Town, Nov. 1.—Gen. Buller came ashore Tuesday morning to receive a reception such as Cape Town has seldom or never before accorded to a visitor.

The first news of the progress of the war reached Gen. Buller and his officers on Monday, when the Dunottar Castle met the homeward-bound ship Australasian, which signaled that the Boers had been defeated in three battles and Gens. Symons had been killed.

Slocum to Be Alone.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The recent orders assigning Col. Samuel G. Sumner, Sixth cavalry, military attache of the United States at London, to duty with the British army in the Transvaal have been revoked. Capt. S. L. Slocum, Eighth cavalry, military attache at Vienna, has started for the Transvaal, and probably will be the only United States military representative at the seat of war.

Anxious to Secure Mediation.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—Count Bothmer of Wiesbaden, president of the Peace society, has sent a telegram to Queen Victoria, begging the acceptance of the United States' good offices as mediator between the empire and the Transvaal.

ISLANDS CLAIMED BY SPAIN.

Statement That a Blunder Was Made in the Treaty.

WASHINGTON NOT ALARMED.

Members of the Philippine Commission Say the Territory Involved Is of Little Importance—Spanish Statesman Makes a Proposition.

Madrid, Nov. 1.—A sensation was caused in the senate Tuesday by the declaration of Count d'Almenas that, owing to the ignorance of the Spanish-American peace treaty commissioners, three islands of the Philippine group, the two Batanes and Calayan islands, were not included in the scope of the treaty. These islands, he asserted, ought to be made the basis of negotiations for the liberation of the Spanish prisoners.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The islands in the Philippine group referred to in the Madrid dispatch as not having been included in the treaty ceding the archipelago to the United States are not regarded by the members of the Philippine commission as of any importance.

The opinion was expressed by one of the commissioners that the islands referred to are not worth negotiating for, as they would not be of any material benefit. They are not thickly populated and their commerce is small, as the islands are out of the way of the regular ocean travel. The terms of the peace treaty placed the northern boundary of the limit of cession along or near the twentieth parallel of north latitude. The islands of the Batanes group are north of latitude 20, and if the parallel should be strictly adhered to they would not fall within the scope of the treaty. The Calayan islands, belonging to the Babuyan group, lying south of the twentieth parallel, come within the scope of the treaty.

To Make Recommendations.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The Philippine commission made further progress Tuesday in determining the character and extent of the report to be presented to President McKinley. While the report will deal primarily with questions of fact, it is probable that the commission will also make definite recommendations for dealing with the various phases of the Philippine question. As there is some doubt as to the possibility of completing the report in time for its recommendations to be used in the president's annual message to congress, it is probable that the members of the commission will give him their views orally on the various subjects on which he desires information.

Only One Life Lost.

New York, Nov. 1.—Only one person is known to have been lost in the wreck of the Pennsylvania railroad ferryboat Chicago by the collision with the Savannah line steamship City of Augusta, in the North river early Tuesday morning. John Bryson, the driver of the United States mail wagon, went down with the boat. Two others, however, are reported missing, and there have been inquiries at police headquarters for a third man, whose friends suppose him to have been on the Chicago.

Coal Mine Suspends Work.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 1.—Efforts of President H. R. Calef of the state board of arbitration to bring about an adjustment of the differences between the Decatur Coal company and the miners proved unavailing. The company declined to consider any proposition involving a recognition of the union, and that is the only point at issue. The mules were brought out of the mine today and the mine is closed indefinitely. Four hundred men are on strike.

Writ of Error Has Been Filed.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—Contrary to a recent report, the case of Rosa B. Jaron against the Knights Templar and Masonic Life Indemnity company, which was decided in favor of plaintiff in the United States Circuit court in Kansas City, has not come before the United States Court of Appeals for decision, but a writ of error has been filed and this will be heard some time next May.

Fever Quarantine Is Raised.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The marine hospital service has issued an order raising the quarantine against New Orleans.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 1.—No new cases of yellow fever have been reported here since Monday. One death occurred Tuesday. The board of health officials held a conference to consider the advisability of raising the quarantine of the state of Mississippi against New Orleans.

Big Dressers.

Dress is an important consideration to the Empress of Germany. She buys yearly 100 evening and state dresses, twice as many carriage and visiting costumes, and about 150 demi-toilets and house dresses—450 frocks all told! But there is one woman who has a still greater wardrobe. Indeed, she has more gowns than any woman of this or any other age—2,000, it is said, with 500 women to care for them. She is the wife of Li Hung Chang.

Confidence

Women confide their troubles to Mrs Pinkham and rely upon her advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's counsel is safe counsel.

Woman's life is a constant crisis. From girlhood to womanhood, then to motherhood and so on to the perils of the "change of life." The history of every step is on Mrs. Pinkham's records thousands of times and her vast experience and confidential advice is at the free disposal of every woman who writes to her for aid. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

"Your Medicine is a Godsend" Writes Mrs. Phillips.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I want to thank you for what you have done for me. When I wrote to you last June, I was almost a total wreck from female weakness. I was troubled with irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, bearing-down pains, soreness, and swelling of abdomen; pain at right and left of womb; headache, backache, nervousness, and could neither eat nor sleep well.

"Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Liver Pills, and using your Sanative Wash, I do not feel like the same person. I am so glad that I wrote to you, for you have helped me very much. My nerves are stronger and more steady than ever before in my life, and my backache and all those terrible pains are gone. Before taking your medicine I weighed less than one hundred and thirty pounds. I now weigh one hundred and fifty-five pounds. My friends say I look better than they ever saw me, and I know that I feel better than I have for a good many years. I think your medicine is a godsend to poor, weak women."—Mrs. Carrie Phillips, Anna, Illinois.

Mrs. Barnard Cured by Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR FRIEND—I feel it my duty to express my gratitude and thanks to you for what your medicine has done for me. I was very miserable and losing flesh very fast, had bladder trouble, fluttering pains about the heart and would get so dizzy and suffered with painful menstruation. I was reading in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I wrote to you, and after taking two bottles I felt like a new person. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. J. O. Barnard, Milltown, Washington Co., Me.

The women of America have in Mrs. Pinkham a confidential friend whose advice is always at their disposal, free of charge. The knowledge that women only assist Mrs. Pinkham in her correspondence with women about health, makes it possible for the full details to be given, without hesitation.

Mrs. Cobb Cured of a Great Affliction.

"I think it is my duty to write you what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I suffered with itching of the external parts for six years, and was in misery day and night. I lost flesh and became weak. I tried everything I could think of. My husband wanted me to see a doctor, but I could not consent to that. He then wanted me try your medicine, and this I agreed to do. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also used the Sanative Wash, and am to-day a changed woman. I am free from my misery, and can go to bed and sleep like a baby. I can work with comfort, and it does not tire me as it did to walk. Your remedies have done wonders for me, and cannot be praised enough. I would not be without them. They cured me of a great affliction, and why should they not cure others? I would advise every suffering woman to give them a trial."—Mrs. J. S. Cobb, Bridgeton Center, Me.

Fashionable Evening Dress

Is no longer the monopoly of the merchant tailor. That which we have ready to wear is made from fine English Broadcloths, Crepe, Vicunas and Undressed Worsteds, in absolutely correct shapes, excellently trimmed and tailored, and ready to wear at a moment's notice.

If you have evening clothes made to order, you will have to submit to many annoying fittings, alterations and in the end may perhaps be disappointed withthe result, though your tailor will just the same send his bill for $75 to $100, according to his reputation.

Here, you are fitted properly at once, with as good or better clothes, and at what a saving of time and money! And afterward, if you're dissatisfied, your money back.

Evening Dress Suits, from $25 to $45.

Tuxedo Coats of the same fabrics, $25 to $30.

Iverness Cape Overcoats, from $25 to $40.

Smoking Jackets, Jersey House Coats, Bath Robes.
